THOMPSON-NICOLA REGIONAL LIBRARY ANNOUNCES NEW CONTENT DIGITIZED FROM KAMLOOPS HISTORIC NEWSPAPERS

The TNRL is pleased to announce that the Thompson-Nicola Historical Newspaper Digitization Project, or the NewsHound, has been updated with new content. The 1909-1972 Kamloops Daily Sentinel and 1914-1924 Kamloops Standard have recently been digitized from microfilm collections through the support of project partners Kamloops Museum & Archives, TRU Library and TNRL, with a grant provided by the Irving K. Barber Learning Centre's BC History Digitization Program.

Since its inception, the NewsHound project has been made possible through the assistance of local newspaper publishers, museums, archives, regional governments and universities. Usage is steadily increasing as content is made freely available online 24 hours a day, 7 days a week on the TNRL website.

The Kamloops Daily Sentinel, also known as the Inland Sentinel, was the longest running newspaper spanning from the 1880s to the 1987. The Kamloops Daily News was the largest circulating daily newspaper in the TNRD. Together, these papers documented the area's history as a "gateway" and financial center by virtue of its railways, rivers, and highways.

Visit the NewsHound at <http://arch.tnrl.ca>. For more information, contact Melissa Lowenberg, Manager of Community Libraries & Engagement by phone at 250-377-7072 or email mlowenberg@tnrd.ca.
